FAO Inspector,

I am writing to show my support for Karuna,s appeal.

I have been to stay and worked at Karuna.I was warmly welcomed by Merav and Janta and their sons and I had an amazing stay there and learnt a lot about permacuture and respect for the land. Karuna is a wonderful example of how people with a vision and lots of hard work can enhance an area of land and make the most of the natural resources in a sustainable way. Having seen the location of the current toolshed I appreciate why it is there.For it to be moved to the other side of the land would be a total waste of energy.Also the tool shed seems most unobtrusive. Whilst driving through Shropshire I saw many farm buildings that were a lot more unsightly.

Karuna is a very beautiful and healing space and I wish the Wheelhouse family the best possible outcome for them in this appeal.

Sincerely

Zoe Salvesen RGN
